

Section II: Service Policies

TITLE: Displays and Exhibits Policy

Lake Villa District Library (LVDL) will present non-commercial displays or exhibits of educational, recreational, cultural and general community interest materials.

- LVDL's belief in unrestricted access to information extends to displays and exhibits. Library sponsorship of a display or exhibit does not constitute an endorsement of the content, cause, or views expressed. Displays or exhibits are not excluded due to possible controversy.
- LVDL reserves the right to determine, at its sole discretion, what materials will be displayed as well as the scheduling, duration, and assignment of exhibit spaces. The library has the right to review the materials in advance. LVDL's decision on what will be displayed in its exhibit spaces shall be final.
- LVDL requires individuals with materials to display or exhibit to complete the Display /Exhibit Application Form.
- LVDL displays and exhibits take precedence over all others.
- LVDL does not accept displays or exhibits that recruit for a particular religion, cause or political organization.
- LVDL complies with all applicable laws, including the standards and requirements, of the Americans with Disabilities Act and state or local disability accessibility guidelines.
