

LVDL POLICY MANUAL
Section II: Service Policies

TITLE: Group Visits

DATE ADOPTED: March 17, 1986

Community groups and school classes are welcome to visit the library, whether in conjunction with specific projects or assignments or out of general interest.

Groups must schedule a time for their visits so that the library staff can plan accordingly. Tours must be arranged with the appropriate department.

The library reserves the right to limit group size and the number of visits.
